CGA Vice President—

Howell Chosen Student Of Month

Frank Howell, Vice President of C.G.A., was chosen student of the month for the month of October by the Colonnade staff due to his persistence and stamina in the creation of the Georgia College radio station.

The idea began two years ago when Frank was discussing with a friend (Keith Jones) the need to stir interests up in campus activities. The topic of school radio stations was mentioned and Frank took it from there. Asking how he went about arranging the construction, Frank spoke of many phone calls and visits to other schools. "You grow up a lot realizing how to get things done", Frank commented. "I wouldn't have been able to do any thing if I hadn't been on the budget committee."

The station, primarily a student project, will go on the air hopefully winter quarter. Broadcast range will be five miles on a 10 watt FM station, located in Mayfair Hall.

Howell, a senior sociology major, is currently conducting classes for approximately 15 GC students, many of them freshmen hoping to receive their third class license in time to begin work when the new station goes on the air.

As station manager, Howell also conducts the simulated radio station located in Maxwell, the "Maxwell Mouth". The classes have been spending additional time under Franks supervision every Monday night on radio station WMVG on 3 hour program "Campus Pulse".

In addition to his interests in the radio station, Frank is involved in the development of the video tape project already in progress. Last summer, along with another GC student, Frank attended school in New York based on video tape production. During his schooling, he filmed a workshop documentary on what New York children do during the summer which was chosen to be shown on educational television at a latter date.

This being Frank's last quarter, the question was raised as to any plans for the future. He has applied for graduate school, and hopes to continue his education in journalism and video tape media, or teach on a secondary level.

GC Stage Band— It's The Best

The Georgia College stage and augmented stage bands have been invited to play at the annual Georgia Music Educators Association convention to be held at Jekyll Island on Jan. 16-18, according to an announcement made by Boyd M. McKeown of Marietta, a GMEA official.

The GC bands were invited to perform after a committee listened to tapes submitted for consideration by 26 bands in the state.

This is the first time that a GC stage band has ever been invited to play at the conference, which will be attended by music teachers from throughout the state representing all levels -- elementary and secondary schools and colleges and universities.

The GC stage band, under the direction of James Willoughby, assistant professor of music at the college, has played at Jekyll before but for a state-wide conference of health, physical education, and recreation personnel. Last March, the band performed at Disney World.

The GC bands also appear annually at high schools and junior colleges and at the Georgia College band workshop co-sponsored each spring by the college and the National Association of Jazz Educators.

One of the numbers that the augmented stage band will present at the convention will be a new work written by James Mahaffey of the music faculty at Troy State University in Alabama and soon to be published by a New York music publishing firm.

The two bands will present a one-hour concert at the meeting.

Macon students in the band are Don Johnstono, Mike Fountain, Keith Keene, and Bruce Clark.

Band members from other communities are Bruce Fischer of Perry, Mellanie Collette of Rossville, Kathy Hoover of Batesburg, S.C., Cynthia Thompson of Alpharetta, Sandy Hensley and Patty Steen of Forest Park, Melody Dilworth of Royston, Claire Booth of Montezuma, Patti Perry of Griffin, Lauren Cecchini of Elberton, Lylah Perry of Dublin, Norma Hambrick of Cartersville, Jeanne Adams of Columbus, Randy Woodard of Eastman, and Jeff Rose, Roya Smith, and Ginny Boyer all of Warner Robins.

Know Your Senate

Whenever the mention of some high office or position in student government is brought to attention, someone is invariably left with the unfortunate impression that a seat in such an office can be filled only by some pseudo personality who expresses many high flung "qualities of leadership" but lacks all the other traits which usually comprise a normal disposition. It is the intent of this article, however, to eliminate any such feelings by presenting a few facts, in the light of which the reader will hopefully be able to form a more accurate judgement of this matter. Those facts, gathered from interviews of the student government officials themselves, (specifically, the Student Senate, as the headline indicates) reveal that they have been endowed with interests, personalities, and senses of humor just like everyone else as well a degree of talent for leadership.

The first interview was Gary Yawn, a junior who is majoring in biology and chemistry and represents Napier Men's Dorm. Gary's interests however, are not confined to his major fields of study; photography and electronics fall into the category as well. His memberships in the College Government Association and the Pre Med Society (to name only two such honors he has received) are also indicative of his well rounded background.

"Meeting people" is one of the main interests of Cindy Locklear, freshman senator from New Dorm who is majoring in elementary education. In addition to that, she attends BSU plays the guitar, enjoys horsebackriding, and frequently the tennis courts. These varied activities undoubtedly aid her in the pursuit of the first of her interests mentioned in this paragraph.

Joy Webb, a senior majoring in English and History Education, is representative of Napier Women's Dorm. She also attends BSU as well as holding the office of secretary in Agape. In addition to her religious activities which play an important role in her student life, she reports that she "loves music as well."

Senate

major do not prevent Clifton Wilkinson, Jr. from enjoying his various hobbies and interests which include water skiing, photography, politics, and car collections. Clifton is a day student representative from Dublin, Georgia.

Student senator Al Bailey says he "keeps busy." This is readily understandable considering his pursuit of a degree in Business as well as his interest in politics and the development of his musical talents, specifically, performing on the tuba and the bass. Al is a sophomore and a day student representative.

Debbie Andrews, a sophomore psychology major whose position in the Senate is the Bell Dorm representative, is also the manager of GC's renowned soccer team as well as holding the office of treasurer in the Spanish Club. Debbie says she likes "Listening to people" a valuable asset.

A large variety of interests along with an outstanding background are evident throughout Fred Mobley's scholastic career. The sophomore representative from Napier Dorm was named Senior Superlative by his high school annual. This, however does not alter the fact that his interests lie in such areas as sports, a wide variety of music, international politics, people, and indeed "life in general". Fred is also a Pi Kappa Alpha pledge and hails from Decatur, Georgia.

John McKibben, a day student representative from Hoganville, Ga. and another Pi Kappa Alpha affiliate, demonstrates his high degree of ambition by his desire to become "the best Senator with two write in votes." He is a junior majoring in business management and chairman of the financial committee.

Continuing interest in school activities is indicated by students like Jef Walker, a graduate student studying Public Administration and driving an ambulance as a source of employment. He was active in the College Government association during all four years of his undergraduate career, and is now a day student representative in the Senate.

Boating and sailing are among the pleasant past times enjoyed by Debbie Ridley, representative from Bell Dorm. She is a sophomore from Griffin, Georgia, is majoring in sociology, and is also a member of the Student Action Committee.

Greg "Wolf" Wolford has been described by one of his fellow senators as a "tequila addict." This, however, is not the soul criterion responsible for his performance as a senator. He is a "science fiction freak" as well, and also enjoys sailing. The senior psychology major's scholastic activities include chairmanship in the Rules Committee of the Senate, and affiliation with the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

Jeffrey Taylor, a junior majoring in chemistry and biology has several extra-curricular activities and interests. Aside from being a day student representative in the Senate, he is also a member of Pi Kappa Alpha, one of the choices for membership in Beta Beta Beta (the honorary biology association) and the chairman of the aed aff. committee.

Thus concludes this exposition concerning our student senators. Again, (in view of some of the preceding reports) it is hoped that any stereotypes which the student would tend to picture in a senator (or a member of any other group of students on this campus) would be forgotten, and that these students would be thought of as individuals, each doing his or her respective job in the college community.

Love... Ain't It Nice?

Love ain't it nice. Everywhere you look you see happy couples. People who enjoy life, freedom, feelings, and beauty. People who live for the moment, and do what they feel when the feel, can really dig on life. Those who enjoy freedom to its fullest and don't take it for granted, find a meaning in what they see, hear, touch, and feel. And those who trip on feelings find beauty, life, and freedom have different meanings. One

SAC Advice

In an effort to receive the Student Regent Bill which was pigeonholed by the Senate University Committee of the Georgia State Legislature, members of the Student Advisory Council, are starting a petition drive in order to demonstrate an interest in the Bill by Students of the University System and the citizens of Georgia.

The Student Advisory Council which originally conceived the idea of a Student Regent Bill, consist of Student Leaders and Advisors from the 32 state supported colleges and Universities. The SAC is designed to act as a link between Students and Educational officials.

The Student Regent Bill is designed to place a student with full voting power on the Georgia Board of Regents. The Board of Regents which decides Institutional and Academic policies for the University System of Georgia consists of 15 officials appointed by the Governor. Should the Bill be passed, 3 students will be selected by the Student Advisory Council and in turn the Governor would appoint one student and if he is confirmed by the senate he will serve on the Board of Regents.

In late November, petitions are to be circulated to obtain support for the bill. The idea behind the petition is to demonstrate to members of the Senate University Committee, that students and citizens alike are interested in the progress of the Bill.

Free School, Almost

It's still not too late to apply for a Georgia Incentive Scholarship. Full-time students who began their college studies after April 1, 1974 may apply for up to $450 a year in non-repayable aid from the Georgia Higher Education Assistance Authority, a companion agency of the State Scholarship Commission.

Completed applications received by GHEAA before the end of November will be considered for fall quarter assistance; applications received after December 1 will be considered for aid beginning winter quarter or spring semester.

Designed to complement the federally funded Basic Educational Opportunity Grant program, the Georgia Incentive Scholarship program is open to Georgia residents who demonstrate substantial need and who attend college, vocational school or nursing school in the state.

Veterans who are residents of Georgia and who are attending eligible post-secondary institutions are not subject to the regulation requiring that an applicant have begun school after April 1. In other words, veterans who are sophomores, juniors and seniors... as well as those who are freshmen... may be eligible for a Georgia Incentive Scholarship.

Applications are available from the college financial aid office or from the Georgia Higher Education Assistance Authority.

of purest inspirations. And yet how many really find their feelings? Have you ever been stone cold-drunk on feeling, to a point you can't walk. You're missing something. All of you. And you don't need coke, phenobarbital, speed, acid, junk, dope, or ROH to get this feeling.

And love is the answer. Ain't it nice? With love you find understanding, insight, joy, happiness and health. That's all you really need for a truly beauty of life.

With understanding, you won't have wars, rape, pillage, robberies or anything that hurts. Understanding doesn't take books, articles, or even words. All it takes is a person who wants to make himself better. A person that wants to help others and not hurt.

Am I really a person - or am I nothing more than a mass of feelings, floating from one place in time to another. JLS once said, "there is nothing holding you here and now excepting your own mind. If you can break the chains of your mind, you can break the chains of your body. And when this is done there is not time where you cannot go and no place you cannot live."

But too many times people destroy these feelings by making earth, more of a hell. People who rob (I'm referring to a white Chevy II stationwagon Nova and occupants who visited the Bat Station on the 18th) as well as others refuse to understand. People who still refuse to feel. Pyro's refuse to see. Liars refuse to hear. When will it end? When will people return to the world of feelings that they evolved from and have lost? When will people loose their hate for blacks, whites, yellow, and reds? Never? I'm afraid so. Love ain't it grand.

Hope you people mentioned above don't mind if I don't join your party. I vote for feelings.

Letter Of Interest

I want to appologize for the error in last weeks issue of the Colonnade. On pages 6 & 7, three names were added to the list of Who's Who, that in reality should have been included in my staff box. My deepest apologies for Rick Manfield, Kathy Sheppard, and Keith Bachelor.

The Colonnade is in great need for help in lay-out and reporting. If you have noticed a repetition of copy from that appearing in the Union-Recorder, it is possible because of the necessity to use Public Relations copy. With a larger staff, this would not be true. If you have any talents, or wish to learn of the newspaper trade, please attend our weekly meetings, every Wed. and Thurs. night, 6:00 p.m. Maxwell room 130.

Sincerely,
Editor

All the ghost and goblins were moving to the sound of the distant Beowulf lead at the Pike Masquerade Party held at Lake Laurel Thursday, October 31, 1974. Witch June conjured up many eccentric victims from all places and times. Prizes were awarded to John Landwehr and Donna Brandt for the best dressed couple; Gary Heidel was awarded best dressed single, and Fred Mobley was awarded for having the most original costume.

As a finale, gathering Wayne Fatum showed us - not only how to get an apple out of a bucket of water - but how to control all the apples with one bob. With Rick, the Red Neck, his wife, Debbie Luellenen Bobbiesocks, Winklecloth Wolf, and many others, the traditions of Halloween were carried out to as fine point.

Black South Meets

By Betty Thomas

The interest group of Delta Sigma Theta, Inc. met on Thursday evening at 6:30 p.m. with 10 members present and Mrs. Cook as advisor.

The group of girls are 2nd quarter sophomores or better. They have averages of 2.0 and above. Other criteria stressed included character, willingness to work, and service to Black culture.

The group sponsored a Tea on November 3 at the home of Mrs. Cook to enlighten other girls on campuses to what sororities are all about, and how they are helpful in a well rounded college life.

How To Plow Minds

A fall workshop featuring student guest speakers from various Georgia Colleges will be held Saturday November 9 in Chappell Hall here at Georgia College. Plans for the workshop include a tea to be held Friday night at the Home Management Residence and a tour of the Governor's Mansion on Saturday. Other activities will be a skit, a football game and the issuing of door prizes.

The tea on Friday will begin at 7:00 while the registration on Saturday will start at 8:30. All Georgia College Home Economic Club Members are invited to attend.

Admission will be $1.00.

Dance

Many students complain of having no formal or semi formal functions here at Georgia College. Well your day has finally come, for on November 23, plans have been made just for this purpose!

The Brookwood Station, a top 40 band will perform for a semi-formal dance held in the cafeteria 8:00 - 12:00 p.m. The dance will be free for students with ID, $2.00 for guests.

Be sure and make plans for this exciting evening, Nov. 23. After all where else can you go in Milledgeville on a Saturday night that is a semi-formal function? See you at the dance!!

Piano To Stardom

The first Atlanta Young Artist's Competition for pianists, to be jointly sponsored by the Junior Associates of the Atlanta Music Club and the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, has been announced for April, 1975.

The competition is open to pianists of any nationality, who will have reached their seventeenth, but not their 28th birthday, as of May 15, 1975, according to Competition Director, John Schneider.

The First Prize award carries a $1,500.00 fee, a guest appearance on the 1975-76 subscription series with the Atlanta Symphony, and the possibility of a brief tour with the Orchestra. Second Prize will be a $600.00 fee and a special performance with the Atlanta Symphony on Sunday afternoon, April 20, 1975. Third Prize will be $400.00 and a solo recital in the Atlanta Music Club's 1975-76 concert series.

Preliminary judging will be made by a three-member selection committee from tapes submitted by the candidates. From the tape submissions, no less than six and not more than eight semi-finalists will be chosen who will each perform a concerto with the Atlanta Symphony Orchestra before an audience on April 19. Associate Conductor, Michael Palmer, will direct the Orchestra.

Repertory requirements, to be submitted on reel-to-reel tape, include Toccata in g major by J.S. Bach, and a work or group of works of the candidate's choice, not to exceed a total of 20 minutes in contrasting style to the Bach. Although not required for tape submission, the candidate must also specify a concerto, should he be selected as a semi-finalist. Tapes must be submitted not later than March 1, 1975.

The tape selection judging will be by Jeannine Morrison, Clayton Junior College, Atlanta; William Noll, Atlanta Symphony Orchestra; and Joyce Johnson, Spelman College, Atlanta. Semi-final competition will be judged by William Mootz, Music Editor and Critic for the Louisville Courier Journal, and William Masselos, pianist and artist-in-residence at Georgia State University. They will be joined by Robert Shaw, Music Director of the Atlanta Symphony, for the final judging on April 19.

Additional information about the competition may be obtained by writing Atlanta Young Artist's Competition, John Schneider, Director, c/o Atlanta Symphony Orchestra, 1280 Peachtree St., NE, Atlanta, Ga. 30309.

Jeans = Comfort

Tight jeans are "out", while roomy, comfortable overalls are "in" as after class casual attire on the Georgia College campus this fall.

For both sexes. "They're comfortable and durable and easily laundered, allowing a college student to get away from the high cost of dry cleaning," says Gregg Duckworth of Norwood, a senior at the college majoring in biology.

"And they don't have to be ironed once they've been washed," adds Doris Smith, a GC junior from McRae majoring in English and history.

Overalls first began appearing on the Milledgeville campus last winter, when a few male students popped into class either directly from hunting or from doing some outside work at home.

"On a cold winter day, a part of long johns or sweat pants and a long warm sweater beneath my overalls really feel great," says David Brooks of Gordon, a sophomore at the college.

Brooks also points out that the long pockets of his overalls are ideal for holding pencils, rulers, and slide rules, not to mention any long loaf of French bread he might be inclined to carry.

A pair of overalls also comes handy to cover a shirt that might have shrunk and be too short to wear with conventional slacks, Brooks adds.

Elaine Gunter of Nahanta, known as Pinky to her friends, swears by the front pocket of her overalls as the best place to keep fish hooks when she and her friends go fishing on Lake Sinclair. Pinky is a senior majoring at the college in early childhood education.

Overalls aren't exactly cheap, selling for an average of from $10 to $12 per pair. But they last and last and last.

No, these are not moonshiners -- just in from the still. The five pictured here are Georgia College students who are displaying the latest in campus afterclass wear -- roomy, comfortable overalls. From left are Randy Smith of College Park, Pinky Gunter of Nahanta, Gregg Duckworth of Norwood, Doris Smith of McRae, and David Brooks of Gordon. The overalls range in price from $5 to $15.

Coach Robinson Resigns

Coach Ray Robinson, head basketball coach for the Colonials for the past two seasons, has resigned effective this past Monday, Nov. 4. Taking over the head coaching job as an interim replacement is

Interim Coach Floyd Anderson

Athletic Director Floyd Anderson. Coach Anderson, who has been the athletic director at G.C. for many years, will serve as head ineutar until a replacement for Coach Robinson is found.

In the 1972-73 basketball season, Coach Robinson's team compiled a 9-15 won-lost record while being 7-7 in conference play. In the 1973-74 basketball season, Robinson's team record dropped to 1-22 with a 1-12 record in the conference.

Coach Robinson was reported to have returned to Macon to attend to his business interests there; the general attitude being that he needs to devote more time to either coaching or his business and he chose his business.

The news leaves a rather onmius cloud hanging about our men's basketball as they open their season against Birmingham Southern in less than two weeks. Anyway, good luck to Coach Anderson and his ball players and farewell and best wishes to Ray Robinson. Let's support our basketball team this year, too.

Womens Intramural Tennis Tournament

A 10:00 am. Saturday, November 16 the athletic complexes will be the scene of a tennis tournament for all female college students.

There will be both singles and doubles competition in two divisions. One for those who have participated in intercollegiate tennis and one for all others who have never participated on a college varsity team.

A roster can be found on the HPER intramural bulletin board, or submit names to Cheryl Selph (Napier 320B) or Miss Taylor (HPER office 202A). Deadline for signing up is 5:00 p.m., Nov. 13.

SPORTS BRIEFS

... Dr. Scott Staples wants to remind everyone about intrumural soccer starting this coming week. Be sure to get on a team and obtain a schedule from your team manager - Good Luck!

... Our girls volleyball team continues to pile up more victories enroute to another region championship. Let's support our girls as they take on more opponents at home this upcoming week. (They will be featured in the next edition of the Colonnade).

Soccer Entering Final Week

This Saturday, the Georgia College Soccer team travels to Atlanta to take on the Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech in the two teams first and only meeting of this season. Georgia College carries a 3-6 won-lost record into the contest with Tech. The Colonials close their regular season the following week as they travel to Macon to play Mercer University in their final game of the year.

This past week the Colonials dropped games to Berry College and Mercer University. Georgia College visited Rome this past Friday and literally outmanned and outplayed a fine opponent for the first half of action as they led at halftime 1-0. However, some loose midfield play and slack goalkeeping and defense, resulted in a shift of momentum as Berry racked up three goals to move before the final gun had sounded. G.C. did play a good game however, and Coach Peterson commented that they came to give a fine team a good game and they did.

In the Mercer contest, the Colonials did everything but score a goal as they were defeated at home 2-0. The midfield play and defense just couldn't score a goal and they had. Shot after shot either it was blocked, off center, or spun right past the goals. The Colonials did play a good game but just could not dent the scoreboard even though they had plenty of good shots on goal.

The 3-6 record is in no way indicative of the caliber of soccer our team has been playing as they have had a chance to win all but one ball game in the final minutes of play.

Bill Dobbs is continuing to do a fine job as goalkeeper while Jon Smith, Mario Liejo, and Barry Bruner are doing commendable midfield work and defensive play. Chi-Tane Chain, Sidney Gerhardt, and Muhammed Karmara are the bunt of the Colonial offense.

Keep supporting our Colonial Athletic teams through the rest of the year as well as soccer season. See you at the games!

Win A Turkey!

Before going home for Thanksgiving win a turkey. How? Co-ed turkey run with the winning pair receiving a turkey each. The co-ed turkey run will take place at the athletic complex on Monday, November 25 at 4:00 p.m.

Anyone can participate by signing the roster on the HPER bulletin board by 5:00 p.m., November 22. You must sign up with a partner and you must run with that person.

For more information or to sign up, contact Cheryl Selph (Napier 320B) or Miss Taylor (HPER office 202 A).

Organized try-outs and practices will be held Thursday, Nov. 14, beginning at 6:30 p.m. in Miller Gym for interested drill team members. If anyone has the interest, but cannot attend this first meeting, contact Dr. Poindexter at 453-5493, Margie Gray in Bell Dorm 401, Pam Fleming in Adams Dorm 104, or come by Miller Gym anytime between 9:00 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Mr. W.D. Fincher from Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Macon, Ga. branch, will be on our campus on November 13, 1974 from 9:00 a.m. til 4:00 p.m. for the purpose of interviewing prospective employees from the December graduates.

He will be interviewing in the Placement Office.

This is to inform all students that the class pictures will be taken on Nov. 11-22. The photographer will be in room 139 from 9:00 to 5:00. It is the hope of the Spectrum staff that all students will respond and have their picture taken.
